ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Mazharul Haq Degree College was established on 02 October 1982. This college is established in the name of great freedom fighter and symbol of Communist unity, Mazharul Haq Saheb. This college is a true embodiment of his ideals which is situated on the banks of NH 227(A) in Tarwara, a remote rural area of Siwan district. In the construction of this college, the greatest personalities of the region like Late Arjun Singh, Late Anirudh Singh, Late Sachchidanand Singh, Shri Munshi Singh, Late Surendra Singh, Late Sitaram Singh and state level freedom fighter Late KN Shandilya, Sepoy of Azad Hind, Late Cornel Mehboob and Ambika Dada have made invaluable contributions.

The building of this college was inaugurated on 02 October 1984 by the then Chancellor and Governor Dr. A.R. Kidwai. National Freedom Fighter President Shilbhadra and the then Vice Chancellor of Patna University, Dr. Ganesh Prasad Singh were present in that meeting.

The college was established especially in the interest of the students belonging to Dalit and weaker sections who could not bear the financial burden of going elsewhere and studying. This area was quite backward in women's education. With the establishment of this college, the future of the students has become golden. The passed-out students of this college are holding many posts and making this college proud. This college will prove to be a milestone in the field of education in future.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Vishweshwar Dayal Sinha Memorial Mahila College is located in Ayodhya Nagar, Sadha Chhapra, which is at a distance of 1 km north from Chhapra Bazaar Sammittee. Vishweshwar Dayal Sinha was a famous advocate of Chapra as well as a lover of education and a social worker. He had a deep interest in education, especially at that time, he used to create awareness among women and the intelligentsia of the society so that girls can get higher education. After this Vishweshwar Babu died in 1967. After this, with the aim of realizing the dreams of Vishweshwar Babu, this college was established in the year 1985 by his wife Gayatri Sinha and his elder son Prof. (Dr.) Umakant Sinha. At that time, Bihar University, Muzaffarpur was offering pass courses in a total of eleven subjects. At that time, Jaiprakash Mahila Mahavidyalaya in Chhapra city was the only organized unit for higher education of girls in the entire Saran district, and even today Jaiprakash Mahila Mahavidyalaya is the only institution for higher education of girls in the entire Saran district. One is an integral part of the University and the other is Vishweshwar Dayal Sinha Memorial Mahila Mahavidyalaya, an affiliated unit of Jaiprakash University. This college has been given permanent recognition by the Government of Bihar and Jaiprakash University in the year 2010 for a total of six subjects of prestige and five subjects of pass course, but after the completion of the study of pass course, at present six subjects of prestige are taught in this college. Which are given below: - (1) Home Science (2) History (3) Political Science (4) Hindi (5) Psychology (6) Economics The above prestigious subjects which are major courses at present, their studies are available in the college.

Along with basic facilities, it is taught by qualified and experienced teachers.

Continuous efforts are being made to provide quality education by equipping the college with more modern facilities.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Introduction: Z.A. Islamia College - Introduction Late M.N. Ahmad Ghani, a noted philanthropist established the A.G. M. Trust in the year 1971 in the fond memory of his father Late Maulvi Mohammad Abdul Ghani, ex-member of the Central Assembly, whose dream was emancipation of the downtrodden and underprivileged masses and who firmly believed that education was the most appropriate means for completing this gargantuan task. Z. A. Islamia College, which started functioning as an affiliated college under the erstwhile Bihar University attained incredible heights towards fulfilment of dreams of its founding father. In no time, the college became an important centre of learning for the people belonging to the region around Siwan, which predominantly comprised of uneducated and underprivileged masses. The basic aim of this institution was development of the human resource of the region, which was economically backward and geographically isolated. One of the important objectives of this College was also spread of education amongst the minority communities. In addition to the regular and traditional courses in the Science, Arts and Commerce streams till the UG level, the College is the pioneer in the field of offering a wide gamut of vocational and career-oriented programmes /courses. Z. A. Islamia College is a role model for not only for the institutions situated in this region but also on a larger scale with its spacious campus having 10 acres of land, administrative building, hostels, well equipped and furnished laboratories, canteen, playground, etc. The facilities of library and book bank, scholarship, pure drinking water, career guidance cell, health care and other support services offered are matchless. The College offers honours courses in the Arts, Commerce and Science streams and in total, has fifteen departments and PG in twelve subjects. The outcome of the quality teaching is often manifested by brilliant result of the students in different University examinations.

The college has been accredited with grade B by the NAAC in 2022 and Participated in NIRF in the year -2024.
